Oh Say! Have You Seen Our One Dollar Gaiters?

THE NEWS

VOL. 1. FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1877. No. 7

APRIL.

To see the young spring come again
With her bannered troops of flowers;
To hear the silvery-footed rain
Steal down in the warm night showers.
To see the crystals of shining snow
Dissolve 'neath the sun's bright beam:
To watch the fetters break and go
That held the struggling stream.

To hear the rustle of busy winds,
And notes of an embryo song,
And murmers of all awakening things
That slept in earth's heart so long.

'Look! these are the blessings I bring' she said.
And our winter-weary eyes
Welcome thee here, O beautiful maid!
From the gardens of paradise.

[Youth's Companion.]

ODDS AND ENDS

Cardinal red is losing its grip.

The dog-star is supposed to belong to the Skye species.

Josh Billings wants to know who ever heard a rich man sing.

A baker took strychnine, and a neighbor remarked. "He was always heavy on pies and things."

When the photographer wants to give you a sad expression, he takes your sighed face.

It is said that God hears a widow when she scrapes the bottom of her flour barrel.

One of the advantages of being Welshman is to know how to pronounee "cwmtillery."

A rascally old bachelor says the most difficult surgical operation in the world is to take the jaw out of a women.

Fubbs says he found the seat of war last summer without a map. He made the discovery by sitting down on a bumble bee's nest, in their hay-field.

When a policeman marries he is in a very short time confronted by the great problem of life, vis.: Where to hide his club so that his wife can't find it.

Our One Dollar Gaiters Can't be Beat. Try them!

The News

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING,

— FOR FREE —

DISTRIBUTION TO OUR PATRONS.

BY SAMUEL N. OLDS,

— DEALER IN —

Dry Goods, Groceries,

BOOTS, SHOES, RUBBERS &C.

MORT E. OLDS, Editor and Publisher.

LOCALS.

Wall Paper!

More Wall Paper!

Still more Wall Paper!

Look out for the potato bug!

Plenty of fish in the river this year.

If you want a good white wash brush call on Sam'l N. Olds.

Rake out your front yard and fix up your side-walk. Do, please.

That new style of letter paper is selling like "hot cakes."

Some of the boys are trying to organize a Silver Cornet Band. Success to them.

Don't forget to call every Friday, and get a copy of this little paper, FREE.

It is an old but true saying that "outside appearances are very often deceitful."

The Methodist Sunday is still increasing, there being nearly 100 scholars enrolled.

The card trade has not been as large as usual this week, but look out next week.

Meeting at the Methodist church on the coming Sunday, at half past 10 o'clock.

There was an unusal demand for the last week's edition of the NEWS.

WE INVITE YOUR ATTENTION THIS WEEK TO OUR NOTION STOCK.

GLOVES. We have a varied assortment, and prices range from 10 to 40 cts.

CORSETS. We keep the celebrated "Hip-Gore" brand, and offer them at 40 cents, only.

BUTTONS. Every imaginable style and quality can be found at Samuel N. Olds.'

SUSPENDERS. Boy's sizes from 5 to 25 cts; Men's from 15 to 65 cents.

RIBBON. Ladies' will find a nice assortment, from which to make their spring selections.

EMBROIDERY. We do not have a large assortment, but what we do have, is nice and cheap.

THREAD. We keep a supply of "Clark's," and "Williamantic." They are both considered to be first-class.

HOSIERY. In this line of of goods we defy competition. We now offer a good qualtiy of Hose for 8 cents per pair. All other hosiery in proportion.

Don't pay $2.00 when you can get them for $1.00

In the twelfth local item on the second page of this week's NEWS, we said 'the Methodist Sunday was still increasing. It should read the Methodist Sunday School is still increasing.

Cards!
CARDS!
CARDS!
CARDS!
CARDS!
CARDS!
CARDS!
CARDS
CARD
CARD

Newspapers were first established in 1629.

Farmers should not forget that we print "tip-top' SALE BILLS.

Abe, we have been waiting and watching for you to come and get those cards.

The band gave us a serenade last Monday evening. Much obliged boys, come again.

TRADE.

The other day an agent for a Chicago grocery house was looking around Detroit to see where he could pick up an order. He entered a store on Grand River avenue, and before introducing himself he asked:

"Well, how's trade?"

"John! John!" called the grocer to the boy at the back end of the store, "how much molasses have you sold this week?

"S-i-x quarts!" drawled John.

"And how much did we sell last week?"

"Five and a half."

"An increase of a pint—trade is picking right up!" said the grocer to the agent.

New Goods!

Call and examine!

Men's Cotten Hose 8 cts.

A nice line of boy's boxed toed shoes.

A note given by a minor is not binding.

The VERY BEST of Coffee at Sam'l N. Olds.'

London drinks 250,000 gallons of beer every day.

Fifty cents only, for one of those splendid ready-made shirts.

If you would know the value of a dollar, try to borrow one.

Men's ready-made Overhauls reduced clear down to 50 cents.

No man can get rich sitting around stores and saloons.

Just think! a good pair of Ladies' Gaiters for $1.00

THE LATEST
The Cheapest
THE BEST
HINGS OUT

Gent's Collars.
Gent's Ties.
Gent's Scarfs.
Gent's Cuffs.
Gent's Hosiery.

ALL NEW GOODS

LOCALS.

Time.

All right.

Be sure and come.

Fresh arrival of Prunes.

Quite a crowd in town yesterday.

14 pounds of Prunes for one dollar.

We are a few hours behind time with this week's NEWS.

14 pounds of fresh Prunes for one dollar, at Samuel N. Olds.

Clarence Swift Esq., of Maysville, is visiting friends in this place.

We noticed several mighty odd fellows in town yesterday.

Don't forget about those Prunes. 14 big pounds for only one dollar, at Sam'l N. Olds.

Mighty Dinah what a pretty girl. My krout what big feet; exclaimed one of the young men that is attending school at this place.

"Come, doctor, it's 10 o'clock; I think we had better be going, for it's time honest people were at home." "Well, yes," was the reply, "I must be off; but you need not go on that account."

MISCELLANEOUS.

Dry.

Dusty.

Rather cool.

Farmers are busy.

Potatoes are scarce.

New Goods at Sam'l N. Olds.'

The roads are in a nice condition for traveling.

We received some new cards last Wednesday.

Concert to-morrow evening at Concord. Be sure and go.

Soda Water is "flowing freely" for everybody, at the drug store.

Boys, we have got some elegant neck-ties. Call and see.

4 Paws Circus will exhibit at Ft. Wayne week after next.

Plenty of LIME for whitewashing at Samuel N. Olds.'

Alvin Bair moved into this city last Thursday. Who's the next one.

The attendence at the Odd Fellow's Reunion was not as large as expected.

The band discoursed some splendid music yesterday, at the Odd Fellow's Reunion.

All goods advertised in these columns, can only be bought of Samuel N. Olds.